CHURCH FEDERATION ADOPTS RESOLUTION FOR WORLD PEACE

Ask that Sermons on Subject be Preached from Pulpits on Armistice Day

FIRST MEETING IS HELD ORGANIZATION PERFECTED

Officers Elected and Committees are Appointed

At the inaugural meeting of the La Crosse Federation of Churches Monday, world peace was favored in the general discussion. A communication from the National Federation was read giving detailed outline of past history and present suggestions as to our nation's participation in some form of world court which will promote more amicable international relations.

The following formal resolution was adopted, providing for special recognition of this world issue on Sunday Nov. 11th, which happens also to be Armistice Day:

"It is the sense of the Federation, that the pulpits of our city should utilize the coming Armistice Day as an occasion for emphasizing the duty of our Government to encourage, organize or enter into some specific cooperative movement of the nations which will further check the growth of militaristic sentiment and which will be more decidedly favorable to international peace.

"It is our hope that all churches thus planning shall extend special invitations to their membership and constituency for that day, in order that a candid and prayerful consideration of this most vital question may be had.

"We would recommend further that wide publicity be given this action in subsequent announcements from the pulpit and through the press.

Plan Church Directory

It was decided to hang in the hotels and similar public places where permission may be obtained a directory of churches, giving location and times of services. The president of the Federation, Rev. Ralph Mortenson, announced the personnel of standing committees for the year: it being understood that E. H. Schofield, vice-president and treasurer, and R. H. Kluney, secretary, should constitute with him the executive committee. Other departments are as follows:

Religious Education Department.—Rev. W. S. Stewart, Mrs. C. S. Cone, Mrs. Sorenson, R. N. Fletcher, Rev. H. R. Kintler.

Practical Service.—Rev. J. L. Panzani, C. F. Figgie, L. C. Lake, Andrew Slater, Harry Leithead.

Finance Department.—F. H. Schofield, O. W. Morsler, L. J. Kilian, E. L. Spicer, Louis Nelson.

SAILSTAD CASE TO BE RE-OPENED IN U. S. COURT

CHICAGO, Ill.—The United States circuit court of appeals on November 2 will hear arguments in the case of the New York Life Insurance company against Edward J. Sailstad, of Eau Claire, Wis., who is alleged by the company to have mysteriously disappeared on August 26, 1922, with his stenographer, Dorothy Anderson. A jury in the United States district court for the western district of Wisconsin found that Sailstad had been burned to death in a cottage on Lake Nebagamon, Douglas County, Wisconsin.

The insurance company, with approximately $62,000 in premiums involved in the action, appealed from the jury verdict.

IMPOSE DOUBLE FINES FOR DRY LAW VIOLATIONS

OSHKOSH, Wis.—Bootleggers, who manufacture or sell "moonshine" in Winnebago county in the future may expect no mercy. So many cases have come to do with illicit liquor have been coming before Judge A. H. Goss in municipal court lately that the judge in two instances Monday put on double fines and sentences, declaring: "It is high time to increase the fines to curtail the traffic." Art Schell of Menasha was fined $500 and the same amount was taxed against Herman Krueger of Oshkosh. At Schell's place sheriff's officers found a pint of moon back of the bar. He pleaded guilty. Krueger admitted selling whiskey Saturday night.

REWARD OFFERED FOR CAPTURE OF "KING" BENJAMIN

DETROIT, Mich.—Announcement of a reward of $3,000 by Michigan for the capture of Benjamin Burrill, missing head of the House of David colony at Benton Harbor, was made Tuesday. The reward is in addition to a reward of $1,000 offered by the Detroit Free Press recently for information as to the whereabouts of the colony leader.

CROWD THE HOUSE

BEHIND the play "Don't Park Here," to be given for the last time tonight at the La Crosse Theater, is the pledge of the County Community Council to give $600 to the Social Service work. The play was the method adopted to raise the pledge, and to make it a success the women of the Community Council have been working hard. Since both the Community Council and the beneficiary of its work, the Social Service Society, deserve the best support of La Crosse, there should be a crowded house for the last performance of "Don't Park Here."

Incidentally, it is a mighty good amateur show. See it, tonight.

CHARGE HOSPITAL LEASE RAILROADED BY WILSON REGIME

Pushed Through at Last Minute Claim Federal Employees at Veteran Bureau Probe

FURTHER CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST BUREAU DIRECTOR

Dairyman Says Forbes Asked Him to Haul Away Liquor

WASHINGTON, D. C.—A story as to how an agreement under which the government leased a hospital site at Excelsior Springs, Missouri, was rushed through the treasury department on the last day of the Wilson administration was told yesterday to the senate committee investigating the veterans' bureau. Two government employees were the narrators and one of them, Charles H. Stratton, charged that there was a last minute increase of $1,300 in the rental figure originally agreed upon, authorized by Edwin Laporte, then assistant secretary of the treasury.

In addition, the committee heard more charges against Charles F. Forbes, former director of the Veterans' bureau. James M. Williams, a Philadelphia dairyman, testified that Forbes had proposed to him the secret removal in Williams' milk trucks of large supplies of narcotics and whiskey stored at Perryville, Maryland, Veterans' hospital. This was in September, 1922, and Williams asserted that about the same time Forbes and a man named Richer had sought to "bribe" Mrs. Mortimer against her husband, Elias R. Mortimer, who told a sensational story last week about his alleged relations with Forbes.

Williams also testified that the former director had sought to obtain from Mrs. Mortimer a number of papers given to her by her husband for safekeeping, that he had stated that he proposed to see that Mrs. Mortimer got the $50,000 "coming to" Mortimer in connection with government contracts and that he also stated that Mortimer was to be arrested and "sent to the penitentiary."

RUSS GOVERNMENT MOST STABLE IN EUROPE SAYS FREAR

MADISON, Wis.—Russia has a more stable government at the present time than any nation in Europe, Congressman James A. Frear of Madison, Wis., who has just returned from a study of European conditions, declared here Tuesday. Russia is steadily making progress, Mr. Frear said, and is extending education and increasing its industrial efficiency. "Militarism and hatred seem to exist throughout Europe, except in Russia and England," Congressman Frear said.

Two Saved From Wrecked "Sub"; 3 More Missing

PANAMA, C. Z.—The American submarine O-5, which was sunk in a collision with the steamer Abangarez Sunday, was raised shortly after one o'clock Monday afternoon.

Chief Electrician Lawrence Brown of Tyngsboro, Mass., and Torpedo Man Henry Breault of Grande Isle, Vt., were rescued alive from the hull and taken to the Colon hospital. No trace was found of three other missing men. It is thought Brown and Breault may recover.

"LOST" SUBS REACH PORT.—WASHINGTON, D. C.—All submarines which were lost in connection with the fatal shooting of Bernard Pintz, 31 years old, of Beaver, Wis., Saturday.

The boys, it is said, were quarreling over possession of an old rifle when the shooting occurred. Sudowski says the shooting of Pintz was accidental. The body is held at an undertaker's establishment here pending an inquest.

"DON'T PARK HERE" SCORES BIG HIT ON OPENING NIGHT

Home Talent Show Pronounced One of Best Ever Seen in La Crosse

WELL TRAINED CHORUS AND GOOD PRINCIPALS

Play Deserves a Crowded House on the Last Night

That "Don't Park Here" is the best musical comedy ever produced in La Crosse was shown last night at its first evening performance at the La Crosse theater.

For pretty girls, thrilling dances, beautiful costumes, charming music and humorous situations, with enthralling romance it is completely satisfying.

The action moved along well from beginning to end. The plot at no time interferes with the entertainment, but serves as an excuse for more songs and dances. Over one hundred girls in fifteen different choruses keep doing something all of the time, and the way they can dance is something to see.

There is little doubt that every seat in the house will be filled Tuesday night as a result of the recommendation of those who attended the first performance.

Miss Marian Holiz, as Mary Jane, made herself as captivating to the audience as she did to the hero, Count Deer Kiss. The Italian count well played by Joe Shields. Miss Bernice Kenny is another attractive niece of the O'Terrys, the aunt and uncle played by Norman Schultz and Irene Jamison. Miss Mary Louise Zerler made a hit as the inquisitive child, who wanted to choose her own hats. The two colored servants were played by Myron Locke, and Jimmie Peterson and supplied a humorous note throughout the show.

Lucille Dwyer was charming as the girl, Maggie Nelson, who wanted to get this. She sang several numbers accompanied by the chorus. Maggie was very much interested in Dr. Riggs, well played by Howard Armstrong, who was helping her to get this.

The two Italian entertainers who came walking down through the audience and up on to the stage over the run way, added a pleasant touch with their charming dancing. The two Italians were played by John Lord and Mary Boscher.

The "Florida Girls" with the four men who danced with them, did good work throughout the show. They danced and sang several numbers.

The spooky chorus in "The Sneak" and the character Indian number, "Loma," were also worthy of special mention. The Russian dance "Troika" was attractive and "Say It With Flowers" was delightful. In this number the girls passed down the runway through the audience and scattered flowers.

The milkmaid number, "Say It While Dancing," "Babbling Brook," "When Spring Comes," the clown dance, "The Greek Dance," "Oh, Sister, Alibi, That Hot," the Florida girls' society dance, and "Dreamy Melody," were also pleasing numbers. Miss Beverly Carrington, and Miss Fern Noss led one specialty dance. The Cincinnati dance was another beautiful number.

All of the choruses were well trained and everything went off without any hitch.

The money made by this production is to be used by the Community Council, for the Social Service, so it is hoped that the house will be sold out for Tuesday's performance.

This evening's performance will close "Don't Park Here." Miss Regina Fronta, who directed the show, deserves much credit for the splendidly trained cast.

LOUISIANA STILL AFTER SLAYERS OF DANIEL AND RICHARD

NEW ORLEANS, La.—Gov. John M. Parker of Louisiana, in an address here Monday night touched on the open hearing at Bastrop last January into masked band activities in Morehouse parish, declaring he hoped and believed the "noose" yet would be placed around the necks of men guilty of the alleged murder of Mer Rouge, and T. P. Richard, also discussed the present campaign, appealing to "those who love their homes, their families, state and country not to vote for any man who does not unqualifiedly place himself against the Ku Klux Klan and pledge himself not to knowingly appoint a klansman to office."

DEAF MUTE HELD FOR SHOOTING BOY

COLEMAN, Wis.—Frank Sudowski, 20-year-old deaf mute, is being held in the Marinette county jail in connection with the fatal shooting of Bernard Pintz, 31 years old, of Beaver, Wis., Saturday.

The boys, it is said, were quarreling over possession of an old rifle when the shooting occurred. Sudowski says the shooting of Pintz was accidental. The body is held at an undertaker's establishment here pending an inquest.

BRITAIN ACCEPTS TERMS LAID DOWN BY FRANCE FOR REPARATIONS CONFERENCE

Government Agrees to Conditions Outlined in Poincare Talk; France Still Doubtful as to Success of Proposed Inquiry into Germany's Capacity to Pay

LONDON.—By The Associated Press.—Great Britain has accepted the terms specified by Premier Poincare of France for a conference of experts to consider the reparation question.

The American government will be acquainted with the willingness of all the countries concerned in the reparation problem to participate in the conference and will be asked immediately to designate its members of the committee of experts.

Borah Willing But Doubtful

WASHINGTON.—President Coolidge Tuesday counseled with Senator Borah of Idaho on the latest move toward solution of the European reparations problems and learned that the "irreconcilable" leader was not opposed to the administration program but held grave doubts as to its results.

Invited to the white house by President Coolidge, Mr. Borah declined afterward to discuss his conference, but it was learned that the Hughes proposal for American unofficial participation in the reparations discussions was talked over.

France Still Doubtful

PARIS.—France is still unenthusiastic over prospects of a reparations conference. The majority of the afternoon papers Monday declared they expected "nothing" from a conference to which Premier Poincare, they said, had agreed solely as a matter of principle and for the purpose of showing good will.

They said M. Poincare knew the experts' work would be wasted unless they outlined methods of restoring German finance that Germany would carry out.

A reported British threat to isolate France unless she permits the experts to discuss the Ruhr occupation causes little anxiety. Well informed Frenchmen declare the United States would not participate in such a conference without France, and add that a conference could not force France to evacuate the Ruhr.

Belgium Welcomes U. S. Aid

BRUSSELS.—By The Associated Press.—"Belgium is particularly happy that the reparation question has been advanced a step further through the friendly suggestions of the American secretary of state. Foreign Minister Jassart said in an interview today. After reaching the preliminary steps in the negotiations, he said:

"The Belgian government accepted the second proposition in the British note to the allies and afterward the French government did likewise. Thanks, then, to the happy intervention of the American government, accord was reached between the allies for a complete study of the reparation question.

"The acceptance given by the Belgian government was without reservation. Public opinion in my country, which is always grateful for American initiatives and always proud of the great republic, greeted with joy America's return among the European allies and the announcement that she would no longer remain aloof from their difficulties. There seems no doubt to me that at this stage, thanks to the good will of all, the horizon is somewhat clearer and we can look for real improvement in the general situation."

Banker to Europe

NEW YORK.—Willis H. Booth, president of the International Chamber of Commerce and vice president of the Guaranty Trust company, sailed Tuesday for Paris in a private car for a conference of delegates from 33 nations to make recommendations regarding the proposed reparations discussion advocated by Secretary Hughes.

Mr. Booth was hesitant in discussing the Paris session, which begins Nov. 12, but it was reported his hurried trip concerned selection of the committee of field experts, who, under the Hughes plan, would pass on the amount Germany might be expected to pay.

"I think it will be a very important session," was all he would say.

DOORN, Holland.—By The Associated Press.—A stone thrown by an unknown hand inflicted a serious wound in the ear of Princess Hermine while she was walking with her children Monday evening in a wood near the ex-kaiser's chateau.

The police arrested several persons but said they did not get the culprit. Wilhelm's entourage and the village of Doorn have been greatly excited by the incident.

ZIMMERMAN WON'T RUN FOR GOVERNOR

MADISON, Wis.—Secretary of State Fred R. Zimmerman announced Tuesday that he will be a candidate for reelection next year. Mr. Zimmerman has been prominently mentioned as a candidate for governor.

BLAINE DEFENDS TAXES

MADISON, Wis.—Governor Blaine in a statement Tuesday declared that he expected "displeasure of some corporations" regarding taxes in Wisconsin, in answer to statements reported to have been made by Charles W. Nash, president of the Nash Motors company, in Kenosha last night. The governor said he would have "additional information to give the people on tax-dodging corporations."

TWO SCORE BADGER PHYSICIANS TAKING COURSE IN INSULIN

Bradley Hospital Training Doctors in New Diabetes Cure; to Cover Whole State

MADISON, Wis.—Forty Wisconsin doctors are taking the course in the use of insulin for the treatment of diabetes at the Bradley Memorial hospital and university experts expect to have doctors trained in the use of the new treatment in every community of the state within a short time.

Insulin was first described to the medical profession less than two years ago and after careful work with animals it was tried in treating human diabetes," says Dr. Elmer L. Severinghaus who with Dr. W. S. Middleton has been in charge of the use of the treatment here. "About a year ago the discovery invited a number of well known clinics and hospitals to cooperate in this trial so that the progress might be as rapid as possible. The Bradley Memorial hospital was selected as one of these groups.

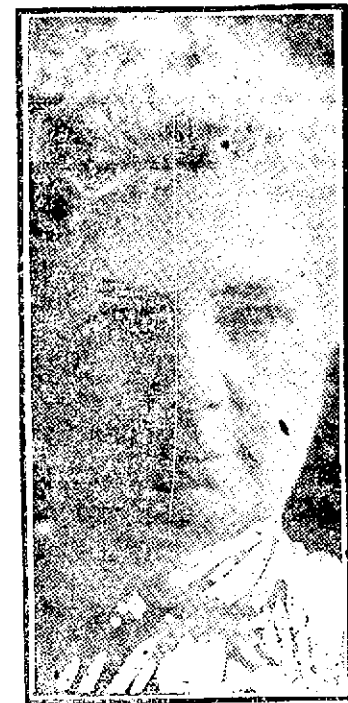

"During the year which has passed sufficient cases have been treated so that the manner of treatment is well established. Since the methods are so new and different from former ones, and since there are so many details to be mastered for success, the physicians of the state were invited to come to the hospital and learn from first hand experience how to conduct the treatment. It is to be hoped that before long there will be in each community at least one physician who has acquired some skill and experience in these new methods. Within a few days insulin is to become available to any physician in the United States. This will place a boon to the diabetes of whom there are possibly one million at present.

"But it may also prove disastrous if the treatments are given by any one not properly skilled. One Wisconsin physician who has been using insulin without much experience found that he was giving too much and causing new troubles to his patient. This was quickly remedied following some instructions.

"The physicians of Wisconsin have responded with considerable enthusiasm to this opportunity. Already some 40 have enrolled for the training. Only six are taken in one group, in order to make the instruction more personal.

"The course is being repeated each week, as long as there are physicians who are interested in attending. The course is being given by Dr. Severinghaus, with the assistance of Miss Viola Mann, the hospital dietitian. Special lectures and demonstrations are given by Dr. C. H. Young, and by the laboratory assistants."

NATION'S WOMEN LEADERS GATHER FOR CONFERENCE

MRS. PHILLIP NORTH MOORE

Planning Ahead

"The women here today," says Mrs. Phillip North Moore of St. Louis, president of the National Council and vice president of the International, "are merely proving that the tradition of feminine far-sightedness is a fact as well as a tradition. We are planning ahead for 1928, for the biggest opportunity American women ever have had to make the United States known and appreciated in every corner of the globe."

"At Washington in that year there will be assembled emissaries of the most powerful body in the world, the International Council. Men, alas, have nothing like it. Think of what is possible with 26,000,000 persons acting as a unit and influencing many times that number by their action. Anything is possible—even elimination of wars, toward which the council is striving."

"Selling" America

There is another side to the question, too, according to Mrs. Moore. "Ours is the unusual opportunity," she says, "of selling America on its merits. Many are coming for the pleasure of the trip in addition to DECATUR, Ill.—Eleven million women of the United States are represented, in person or by proxy, at the opening here Monday of the biennial conference of the National Council of Women.

The meeting undoubtedly is one of the most democratic ever assembled in America. Every class, every creed, every race is represented. The future welfare of the American woman, to a considerable extent, is in the hands of her leaders this week.

It is easy to understand why Mr. Politzer seeks the woman's vote when it is explained that the 45 organizations of women represented here have a total membership of 11,000,000.

The main work to be done here this week is in connection with the convention of the International Council of Women to be held in Washington in May, 1925. The international body, which was founded by Susan B. Anthony, has a membership of 36,000,000. Its policies so far have been identical with the national body.

BOARD OPPOSES DRAINAGE CALEDONIA, Minn.—The proposition to drain the island lands of the Mississippi river between Reno and New Albin received a jolt when the Houston county board of commissioners decided to fight the project. It was figured that the estimate of the engineers, placing the cost at $400,000 would create a burden too great for the taxpayers to bear and far beyond the possible benefits. Opponents of the drainage proposal contended that to improve the 7,000 acres involved would mean an assessment of $50.76 an acre on the land owners concerned.

COURT TO TRY WILL CONTEST WORTHINGTON, Minn.—The contest of the will of the late Daniel Shell of Worthington, former state senator, will be tried before a jury on Oct. 29 in the Nobles county district court, with Judge E. ## Homecoming

THE homecoming game is the greatest adventure of the university year. It touches more emotions and reaches more people than any other. Thousands whose feet trod the "hill" years ago, come back with their memories, and live again their happy student days. The singing and the cheering are tonic for their blood, and youth lifts the weight of years. When they come together in the great athletic bowl, democracy is seen at its best. Wealth and place draw no distinctions there. Banter and conversation ignore formalities of acquaintance, and goodnaturedly jostling masses feel a oneness in the alma mater of them all. Thousands of alumni and their friends go home after the game with some sort of ministry for the university.

The game with Minnesota always is staged in a spirit of sportsmanship. It is our traditional battle royal. Somehow, Wisconsin is more interested in beating Minnesota, and Minnesota in beating Wisconsin, than in anything else short of conference honors. The best loved sister university, we fight the hardest, and they us. And good will is not strained by the vigor of the play. Last year, when Rollie Williams was hurt on Northrop field, after having been a brilliant factor in the Gopher defeat, officials of the Minnesota team showed generous concern for his condition. This gallant sort of comradry gives one's spine a comforting thrill. Homecoming was somewhat tame this year, owing to the tied score. Gay tortures of the defeated, and game suffering of afflictions, were out of the question. Nevertheless, it was a jolly party, leaving the score to be settled next year.

Wisconsin was disappointed with the outcome, Minnesota elated. This resulted from frames of mind existing in the rival camps, rather than from any real justification. Minnesota had two great ends and a formidable line. They outweighed the Badgers heavily, a big advantage in Saturday's going. Our decisive defeat of Indiana may have let us in for a little overconfidence. But the fact is, we are much in our old position, with a great defense and our scoring machine still undergoing development. Mr. Ryan is making a team. Probably he does not pretend to have it made now. If he shall make it this year, he will have done well.

Why didn't he play the ends, where he made such great gains against the Hoosiers? The two star Gopher ends are the answer. But Holmes almost invariably advanced the ball in spite of these ends. In the last quarter, in kicking distance, why was a pass tried with two downs to come, instead of a plunge and, if that failed, a kick? One hears these questions, and more. Who knows, excepting the men in the game? Doubtless the strategy employed could be defended by those on the inside. The ball was wet, and kicking had proved ineffective. Had the pass worked, the play would have been heralded as a stroke of genius, even by those who question. Success has no adverse critics, as a rule. We got one thing out of this. We know that any team that scores against Wisconsin will have to go big. We know something of our own offensive weakness, and how to use to the best advantage such materials as we have with which to strengthen it. In 1923 we may be beaten, but we shall not be disgraced. Hope of big triumphs beckons from 1924.

Oil and Prosperity

THE cost of living possibly may get quite a jolt downward as a result of the present condition of the oil industry.

Things were going along merrily, prosperously, in the oil industry—when suddenly the drillers struck enormous gushers in California. The oil from these wells is exceptionally high in gasoline. California now is producing 40 per cent—two-fifths—of the oil produced in the United States.

Very fine for the owner of the California well. But the owner of the well in other states is in a tight corner. His prices, on oil yielding less gasoline to the barrel, have been slashed time after time. The result is that the producing end of the oil business in general is in worse shape, so far as profits are concerned, than any other big basic industry—probably worse off than general farming. Oil production is, in the main, separate and distinct from refining. The pipe line companies and refiners let the small man take the chances at finding oil, then buy his oil—if he finds any—and set prices without consulting him.

How can this affect the general cost of living? There are about 280,000 oil wells in America, and new wells are drilled constantly. So the oil industry consumes enormous quantities of iron and steel, especially pipe, also wire and manila cables and a great variety of manufactured goods. Prices always are about as high as the buyer can pay. An oil industry, operating on a losing basis, can't pay former high prices for supplies. Probably unless oil prices rise again, prices of materials used by the oil industry will, by competition, fall. Once started, there's no telling where such a drop would stop, nor how many commodities it would affect.

Cheap Fuel

EDISON backs the late Charles P. Steinmetz in predicting that we are close to the day when coal—instead of being shipped to consumers at great transportation cost and effort—will be converted into electricity at the mines. The coal would run big engines, which in turn would operate generators of current to be sent over high-tension wires to a country on an electrical basis. That would make life easier—simply turning the switch for cooking and heating. Not so easy, really, to get such a system into operation at a price that would put the coal dealer out of business.

A different solution of the coal problem was predicted recently by Floyd W. Parsons, making a speech to gas manufacturers. Parsons thinks this: "Eventually every ton of coal mined in the United States will have all heat units converted into gas, which will be distributed through pipes to homes, mills and factories."

We may pass through a Gas Age before we reach the Electric Age. Already there are more than nine million gas meters in America. In the last 12 months, gas companies added 400,000 customers to their books.

There is difference of opinion, as to whether coal at the mines should be converted into gas or electricity. But it's almost unanimously agreed by economists and other experts, that shipment of coal to consumers is too costly. A startling change is coming here. Our generation may live to see it.

Mary Emeline's Career

By H. IRVING KING

Mary Emeline Wharton lived in Malport and was stagestruck. Also she was engaged to James Marsden, who had inherited a most prosperous farm some miles out of town. From the time she was a small child Mary Emeline had acted in the local amateur dramatics and it has become a habit of the townspeople to say "Ain't she just wonderful!" when her acting was most atrocious. That she had dreamed of becoming a great actress goes without saying, but she kept her dreams as dreams and looked forward with joyful anticipation to married life with her James, though she felt that in marrying him she was sacrificing a "career" to love.

Malport stood at the head of the Cove, into which used to sail the West Indian brig with their cargoes of rum and molasses, and into which now nothing sailed.

Three miles away at the mouth of the Cove was the flourishing summer resort of Malport Head. This summer the Malport Free Library association got up a theatrical entertainment, which was a success.

There was Jimmy Marsden to be considered, the leading actor, there was nothing to prevent a great success from having a husband—in fact they had been known to do so. The great night came and with it a crowd of people from The Head at the show. Among these were two men in yachting clothes who watched Mary Emeline with interest. One was a tall, well-built, handsome man of about thirty, while his companion was a tall, lanky person fully ten years older.

Mary Emeline, however, atrocious her acting, certainly did look the perfection of "earnest" beauty that night. As the close of the performance the younger of the men in yachting clothes sent his card to the leading lady.

It bore the legend "Baron Elwell, Theatrical Agency," with a New York address. He introduced his companion, Mr. Robbins, to Mary Emeline.

Baron Elwell, to Mary Emeline, praised her acting, told her that she had a great future before her. She would hear from him again with a proposition to take her to New York, in case she decided to choose the stage as a career.

The two gentlemen had walked over from The Head, but after strolling along the town's Main street for a while looked about for a conveyance to take them to their hotel in Malport. Who had escorted Mary Emeline home—she walked on air and talked of her "career" all the way.

"One dollar," replied Elwell, "now was a thrifty soul, not above picking up an extra simoleon. 'Jump' was the word he used to talk about the show with much laughter at its crudities. 'But that little Wharton is a peach—' said Elwell, 'she made me old shavers trying to act, but otherwise she's all to the candy.'"

"Yes," drawled Robbins, "a find, a positive find."

"What say for the Amazonian march and lobster and champagne afterward?" Robbins laughed. "They were about half way to the head."

Marsden pulled up his horse and said, "Get out."

"What's the great idea, Ruben?" asked Elwell.

"Get out and fight," said Marsden. "Anything to stir up a little heat? 'though I don't quite catch on. Have we talked of Stephen's Choice? The combat was moderately long. Though Marsden was the most powerful man, Elwell had 'experience' which gave him the victory. After the fight Marsden drove his horse and departed. The next day he went to the city and made arrangements to take boxing lessons from a professional. He said nothing to Mary Emeline of his adventure. She, in due course, received a letter from Baron Elwell offering her an engagement of a play about to be put on by the agent, who was developing into a manager. It was a subordinate role, but she must begin at the bottom, but with her genius her apprenticeship would be short. You can imagine the struggle which ensued between Mary Emeline and her betrothed.

The best Marsden could do was to extract from her a promise that she would wait a year before plunging into her career. Another summer came. The Free Library staged another show and Elwell and Robbins were present. Elwell made an appointment with Mary Emeline to see her the next day and talk over with her the arrangements for her metropolitan debut.

"Hello, here's our old friend, Ruben," cried Elwell, as he saw Marsden with his friend coming at a trotting gallop. "Drive us to The Head, Ruben."

"Jump in," said Marsden, remembering their former experience. The two passengers were riding side by side in the talk, but when the score of the former combat was reached, Marsden pulled up his horse and said, "Wait."

"What?" exclaimed Elwell, "want another licking, Ruben? Well, come on." This time skill as well as muscle was on the side of Marsden.

"What do you think of Miss Wharton's acting now?" asked James as Elwell leaned against the fence sipping his bleeding nose.

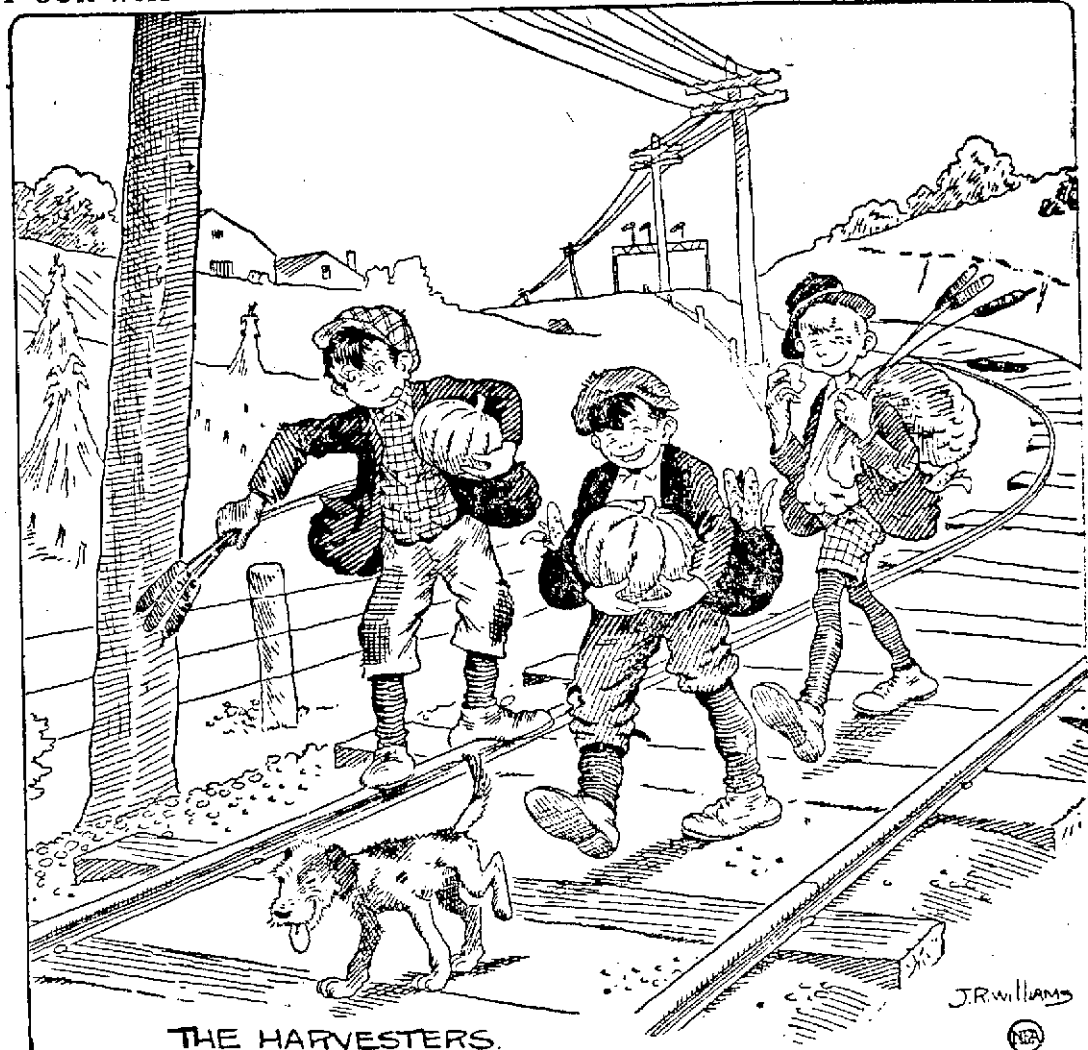

"Acting, you chaw-bacon!" cried the infuriated and discomfited Elwell. "She couldn't act in a thousand years."

"Write and tell her so," said Marsden. "I'll see you."

"No, no, Elwell," drawled Robbins; "let's let it go. I see the point. Ruben wins. I insist, Elwell, old top."

Elwell would have taken another licking rather than have given in to Marsden but Robbins was another matter. Robbins was his "angel," the backer of his stage ventures. When they reached the hotel Marsden said: "I'll wait here while you write the letter."

A little later a bellboy came out and handed Marsden an unsealed letter. "The gentleman in No. 25 says his letter to Mr. Ruben. Is you de pussion?" In the light of the street lamp Marsden read:

"Dear Miss Wharton—After seeing your acting tonight I regret to say that I do not find you so much improved that you would be justified in attempting the metropolitan stage at present."

"BARTON ELWELL," he wrote, "just post that for me in the hotel mail box will you?"

"Deed I will, boss," replied the boy, handing the letter which James slipped into his hand with the letter.

"Oh, Jimmie, I am so disappointed. But it is well I found out in time, isn't it?"

"I am all yours now, Jimmie," said Mary Emeline next evening. "My career is gone."

"No, it has just begun," replied Marsden, "and we will share it together." Copyright, 1923, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

EXCAVATIONS SHOW MAN LIVED IN WEST 25,000 YEARS AGO

Theories Held by Scientists
Wrong by 15,000 Years
Declares Investigator

SANTA BARBARA, Calif.—By Associated Press.—Proof that prehistoric man lived on the Southern California coast at least 25,000 years ago is afforded by recent excavations of human remains near Santa Barbara, Calif., in the belief of Dr. J. P. Harrington, head of a party of Smithsonian Institution investigators which made the find.

Dr. Harrington said the discoveries proved theories formerly held by scientists to be incorrect, by at least 15,000 years and possibly more.

That the Santa Barbara man was an inhabitant of the Pacific coast at the same time, if not earlier than the Neanderthal man, is established, according to Dr. Harrington, by a number of features of the skulls found here, chief of these is the thickness of the skulls, the almost complete absence of forehead, the boxy characteristics of the teeth and the construction of upper and lower jaws, which resembles that evident in the lower order.

The skull of the Santa Barbara man possesses a pronounced supra-orbital ridge without depression between the eyes, as does the Neanderthal man. The thickness of the skull, more than one-half inch, is almost the same.

The long crushing jawbone, the powerful flat top, and bovine teeth, are all unmistakable signs of the antiquity of the find, according to Dr. Harrington.

The discovery of the skulls, he said, will bring about a complete revision of the theory now held by scientists as to the date of man's first appearance on the North American continent. Hitherto it has been accepted as a fact that primitive man originally came to North America from Asia, via the Bering strait, about 10,000 years ago and gradually worked south. The discovery of the Santa Barbara man, according to Dr. Harrington, established the fact that Burton's mound, scene of the excavations and once the site of a fashionable seaside hotel, felt the tread of man 15,000 years earlier.

The spot where the primitive skulls were found was made available for excavation by the burning of the hotel two years ago. Soon after the fire scientists negotiated for permission to conduct excavations on the site, which long had been a center of interest to archaeologists because of the location there of an old Indian burial ground.

MOTHER'S CLUB PLANS COFFEE FOR NOVEMBER

Coffee to Be Given to Raise Money For High School Band Uniforms

At a meeting of the Mothers' club of the La Crosse high school last Friday it was decided to give a coffee from school, on November 16, to high school band. Tickets were given out to be sold, for a very small sum, by the members of the Mothers' club.

Mr. Horton Kline, of the high school, has offered to take charge of the sale of half the tickets.

Mrs. E. J. Wagoner was appointed chairman of the committee in charge of the coffee. She will be assisted by the other members of the club. Mrs. Albert P. Carter, Mrs. Paul Carter, and Mrs. Carl Carter, all of the high school, were appointed to sell the tickets.

The Mothers' club is a very active organization. It has many projects on foot. It is planning to give a coffee for the high school band uniforms next year.

Here is a story of a cross-section of life in La Crosse, one phase of life in the city, without names, places of ultimate consequence.

The plasterers found the place, rounded up the husband, found that the wife was still intact and started for the street with the man. Once on the street, the man announced that it was as far as he would go.

Loss Irreparable—Baldwin

LONDON.—Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin, who succeeded Andrew Bonar Law to the premiership, paid the following tribute to the dead statesman:

Lloyd George Expresses Regret

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Word of the death of Bonar Law was received with deep regret by David Lloyd George upon his arrival here Tuesday. He dispatched a message to the daughter of the late premier, and in a statement to the press said:

"I have heard the sad news with deep regret, mixed with relief that the long and severe suffering has at last come to a peaceful end. I saw him shortly before I left for this country, and the news certainly was not unexpected by me."

Born in Canada

Bonar Law was born in New Brunswick. In early youth he was taken to Glasgow where he attended high school and finally became bookkeeper for an iron firm.

Empty Cradles Continue to Form Subject of Comment; Fear for Future of Race

LEEDS, England.—England's empty cradles continue to form a subject of animated comment among the newspapers, doctors and sociologists. Not a few British officials express misgivings over the future of the race if the present rate of decline in births continues.

Dr. J. Johnstone Jarvis, medical officer of health for Leeds, in his report for 1922, refers in some striking passages to the subject of birth control. Commenting upon the fall of the birth rate in Leeds from 21.8 to 19.8 per 1,000, he says: "How people can, in these circumstances, talk of birth control and the necessity for the reduction of the birth rate, passes comprehension."

Kench's break for freedom was described by prison officials as one of the most spectacular in their experience. Kench climbed to the roof of the prison shirt factory on the north side of the enclosure, where he fastened his hand-made roller over the electric wires down which he made a sliding forty-foot slide to the prison wall. He then jumped to the ground, apparently alighting uninjured.

PROHIBITION IS TOPIC OF SERMON AT LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. E. C. Dixon Says that to Prohibit Use of Liquor is Only Way

In anticipation of world's temperance Sunday some aspects of the great reform were discussed at the First Methodist church at the Sunday morning service. The pastor, Rev. E. C. Dixon spoke in part as follows:

"In the great war that is being waged against the heinous use of alcohol two phases of the controversy must steadily be kept in mind, viz., the legal and the educational. Doubtless many thought that when sweeping prohibitory legislation had been enacted the matter had been wholly settled and that we could move on to other matters. The fact that prohibition is the most discussed thing in all America today shows plainly enough that much remains to be done. Passage of a bill does not transform the thought and life of a people and finally no law has greater sanction than the moral support of the government. Believing as we do in the absolute right and justice of the most drastic prohibitory legislation we must also recognize that many still regard such legislation as without moral sanction, at least many in high places so declare, and as nothing more than an impotent interference with innocent personal tastes.

"The work then of those of us who believe in the prohibitory law is not simply to enforce it, though we should do that, but we must show its vital claim upon a moral and civilized people.

"First then we would say that there is no such distinction as is often declared between acts naturally evil and others evil only because so declared by statute. Thus murder which would perhaps be thought an unusually recognized evil is not so recognized by many in many places. Killing a negro or a Chinese is most lightly considered, if thought a crime at all, in many parts of America to this day. It is only as people become Christianly civilized that murder is an evident evil.

"On the other hand shooting a partridge out of season is evil only because so declared by law, one might say. Yet think further, is there no evil in killing a game bird out of season? Why not kill them all off at once? We should not kill them all off at once because others' pleasure must be considered by the Christian man as well as his own. Unselfishness demands that we share with others the pleasure we enjoy.

"It would seem that the battle for total abstinence and legal prohibition had been won in the matter of alcohol, but as many deny it we must again and again press the controversy and call to mind important facts and arguments relative to the question.

"We know of no better comparison than that which we find in the well known and generally accepted quarantine laws.

"Persons with contagious diseases must be kept from common contact with others in the community. Not because all would be taken with the contagious disease, and not even because all taking it would die, but because the risk would be so great and

UNCLE SAM SINKS DUTY HARPOON IN CHRISTMAS GIVING

BY W. A. BIRD
(Special Dispatch to the Tribune)
Copyright, 1923

PARIS.—A recent United States treasury ruling has set some hundred thousand American residents and travelers in Europe wondering already about their Christmas shopping.

Secretary Mellon's department has announced through the consulates that the dread tariff will apply henceforth to every article of foreign merchandise sent through the mails.

In previous years, there has been considerable toleration on the part of customs authorities, as the Christmas season approached, small articles forwarded by first class mail went through unquestioned. But now it is announced that every envelope containing technically dutiable goods must be accompanied by a formal customs declaration, which means that the receiver will have to pay Uncle Sam tribute on every present from abroad.

As it is seen here, this ruling will do more to take the joy out of Christmas than it will to enrich the United States treasury. Few persons are likely to send gifts on which the receiver must pay from fifteen to sixty per cent of the value.

the actual evil would be so certain. Fifty years ago the death rate from diphtheria was around 85 per cent and there was no general quarantine. Now we have antitoxin, the death rate is about 15, and the cases are rare because of strict quarantine.

"So with alcoholics, not all who indulge become addicts, not all addicts and their lives in tragedy but the insidious appeal of alcohol leads thousands to addiction and since the days of Matthew Hale, chief justice of England under James II who declared that eight-tenths of all crime committed in the kingdom was the result of the use of alcoholic drink, we have not been able to reduce the percentage under any form of dealing with the business other than prohibiting it entirely.

"Today there is a great propaganda aiming to show that results under prohibition are much worse than under license. Careful investigation shows that this is the result of propaganda and nothing else.

"Formerly all the evil results were kept from the public as far as possible. Today they are not only fully reported but are reported with gross exaggeration and not infrequently made out of whole cloth as I know from personal investigation.

"The Scripture word is 'It is not good to drink wine, nor to do anything whereby thy brother stumbleth.'

"The greatest possible good out of alcohol is a mere sensuous gratification. After the addiction is overcome that sensuous delight can be had in other forms of harmless drink. While the recognized evils of alcoholic drink are such that Christian morals demand that no man shall gratify his personal taste at the expense of tremendous evil to great numbers in every community where alcoholics are used as a beverage."

SACHTJEN STANDS WITH BLAINE ON DRY CONFERENCES

Declares State Department Will Continue its Energetic Campaign Against Violators

MADISON, Wis.—State prohibition forces will carry on as energetic a campaign against liquor violations in the future as in the past, State Commissioner Herman Sachtlein said Tuesday, commenting on Federal Director Perry's proposal to hold conferences for enforcement throughout the state. Governor Blaine has expressed himself as opposed to such conferences.

"Our appropriations are limited but we intend to enforce the prohibition statutes to the fullest extent possible under available funds," Commissioner Sachtlein said. "If we had an unlimited amount of funds, we might increase our efforts by adding more deputies. The enforcement work as far as the state department is concerned, has been progressing favorably and promises to continue so."

Commissioner Sachtlein said that he agreed with Governor Blaine in his opinions regarding the proposed conference. No official invitation to join in the program outlined by the federal director had been received by Mr. Sachtlein Monday.

LICENSES REQUIRED OF STATE DOCTORS ON LIQUOR PERMITS

Attention of State Physicians
Called to Regulations in Letter from Sachtlein

MADISON, Wis.—Notices of state regulations regarding physicians to issue permits for sale of liquor are being sent out to all physicians who have failed to obtain licenses from the state prohibition department by Commissioner Herman Sachtlein. Many doctors have not complied with the state law by obtaining a license to issue permits, commissioner Sachtlein said today.

Under provisions of state laws, each physician must obtain a license and pay a fee of $10 annually before he can lawfully issue a liquor prescription. There are approximately 4,000 physicians in the state subject to the tax, it is stated.

Some physicians, according to prohibition officials, fail to obtain licenses from the state department after being authorized to prescribe liquor by the federal government. It is pointed out that a federal permit does not exempt a physician from the state law.

Under terms of an amendment to the prohibition statutes passed by the last legislature, certain classes of professional men, such as dentists, are not required to obtain permits from the state department if alcohol is used merely for sterilizing instruments. The new act is effective January 1. Before, however, such men were required to have a license.

Conferences to be Held at Six

MADISON, Wis. — A series of conferences throughout the state this week on the question of the delinquent girl opened Monday, according to state health department officials, who are sponsoring the meetings. Six conferences will be held at Madison, Janesville, Stevens Point, Eau Claire, Superior and Green Bay. Problems with regard to the delinquent girl will be discussed by experts from the state department and from outside the state. To obtain further information as to what is being done regarding the delinquent girl problem, questionnaires have been sent out to probation officers, welfare associations, police officials and court officials.

Mrs. Martha P. Falconer of the department of protective measures, American Social Hygiene association, will be one of the principal leaders of the conferences. Others who will appear and discuss various phases of the delinquency problem are: Aubrey Williams, secretary of the State Conference of Social Work; Miss Margaret Johnston state supervisor of vocational home economics; Mrs. I. P. Winter, president of the Wisconsin State Conference of Social Work; Miss Alice Zillmer and Miss Martha R. Riser of the state health department. Juvenile court judges also will be called on to appear at the meetings.

The schedule of conferences began at Superior Monday and continues as follows:

October 31—Stevens Point, public library.

November 1—Green Bay, Brown county court house.

November 2—Janesville, high school auditorium.

EVIDENCE SETS ARSON TRAIL
ACADEMY, S. P.—Following the burning of a barn and three other buildings on the farm of A. E. Schwepk, near here, in which 12 horses and a dozen Holstein cows were burned to death, Mr. Schwepk found that one horse and a set of harness had been stolen from the barn before the fire. This discovery has led the authorities to take the trail of possible incendiaries. The loss was $8,000.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups and saves about $2.
Easy and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could get ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never fails.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the mucus, soothes the inflamed throat and breaks the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and laryngeal asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction. For money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

A Con- structive Force

FROM the day when its first refinery was opened, it has been the earnest endeavor of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) to be a constructive force in the industrial life of the nation.

With all modesty we say—frankly, sincerely, and with profound conviction—that this organization has been such a force.

When this Company was organized, only a few products were taken from crude oil. Today, hundreds of products—useful, convenient, imperatively needed by the public at large—are taken from this single base.

This industrial husbandry, redounding to the material benefit of mankind, is eloquent in demonstrating the kind of work which the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been doing year after year.

This Company always has been a leader. The advanced work it has done in research, discovery, technical application, development and manufacturing, has added much to the wealth of the world.

Hundreds of industries have improved their manufacturing processes and largely increased their productiveness because of the advanced work this Company has done—and such improvement has enabled the manufacturer to sell his products at a lower price than would have been possible otherwise.

Because of the Company's advanced thinking, planning and preparation the price of petroleum products generally has been kept within reasonable bounds in the face of a demand which is unprecedented in history.

Every factor in this great organization is carefully attuned to the constructive ideals of conservation, equity, fairness and justice, which in turn have operated in a comprehensive way to the distinct and material advantage of the thirty million people living in the Middle Western States.

How to make Good Coffee

NUMBER IV

To serve good coffee it is absolutely necessary to keep your coffee pot or percolator sweet and clean. Wash it carefully—wipe it out thoroughly with a clean cloth and rinse it in clear hot water. If washed with soap or soda every vestige should be removed by careful rinsing. It is a good plan to leave the cover open when it is not in use to let in air. Scrupulous care must be taken, for coffee readily absorbs odors.

John Arbuckle, the greatest coffee merchant in the world, selected as his guest coffee, the finest coffee that could be found. That is why Yuban today has that satisfying, full-bodied flavor that everyone has always wanted in a coffee. Everyone who tasted it said it gave him a new idea of how good coffee could be.

On To Milwaukee, Gang! Fight 'Em! Fight 'Em!

COACH KEELER and the Normal football gang march out to Milwaukee this week for the first game in the Normal school conference. Fight 'em up gang!

Jule Kevin and Marion Schaeffer, both of whom have been out of practice for some time, were out on the field for the first time last night. They were taking practice easy, but showed the old time form nevertheless. "Jule" sure can rattle off the signals, and Marion can boot the ball in pretty fashion.

The gang was out on the field with all the pep they possessed last night and did some strenuous work. Coach "Tubby" Keeler and the tackling dummies out and every man tackled and bucked, with a lot of fight. The stateness in the game Saturday showed the need of this practice.

Perfecting plays was in order on the field and the men put in an hour reeling off play after play. When the gang meets Milwaukee there is going to be some tearing through the line.

"Maul Milwaukee" is the slogan at the La Crosse Normal this week. Students are enthused about the game and a great many are planning on attending.

The game with Milwaukee next Saturday will be the first state Normal conference game that La Crosse has played. With La Crosse's brilliant line of victories this season, the Milwaukee game is looked at with no great fear. The men expect to fight, but also expect to bring another victory home to the school.

"Cy" Ettinger was out of practice last evening because of injuries that he sustained on his left hand.

Buddy Reynolds is using a crutch because of injuries he received in his hip Saturday. He claims that he'll be back in practice on Wednesday, or know the reason why. Is it the crutch?

"Walt" Holmes is back again! He was up at Normal field last evening and pepped up the men in his usual fashion. "Walt" has almost earned the title of assistant coach. He is a beaver in administering hot applications. "Comical" eh, Mary?

"Muff" Johnson is on the job the same as usual. We have to hand it to "Muff" for the pretty playing which he put across in the game with Chicago. He may be the lightest man on the team, but what he lacks in weight he certainly makes up in fight. Here's to you, "Muff."

The fellows are anxiously looking forward to their sleeper for the trip to Milwaukee. It isn't often that the Maroon and Grey men are handed a special sleeper and they intend to make the most of it. Here's hoping that Thompson and Ettinger are given a sleeping powder, or sleep will not be in order.

"Tommy" Murphy, manager, is all "het" up by the news of a sleeper with a berth for himself. "Tommy" has slept under a berth and knows the value of a cuspidor pretty well.

Warning "Cy" Ettinger, we might tell you now that it won't do to have the Milwaukee girls calling you "Daddy." It just won't work twice.

PLATTEVILLE IS PUSHED OUT OF THE 1000 COLUMN

River Falls Does Trick; Three State Normals Remain Undefeated

MILWAUKEE, Wis.—River Falls normal school pushed Platteville normal out of the 1,000 column in the normal football conference last week leaving but three undefeated elevens as contenders for championship honors. Chisholm came through its game with Stevens Point with a 28 to 0 victory, and leads the list of teams with three victories. Eau Claire still remains in the undefeated list also.

The race for title in the normal conference had narrowed down so that the remaining games of the season will have a decided bearing on the final outcome. Eau Claire is expected to have little difficulty with Stevens Point this week.

ILLINOIS AND CHICAGO MEET IN FEATURE GAME OF BIG TEN MICHIGAN, IOWA GETTING READY

CHICAGO, Ill.—Two master minds of football are being concentrated this week on the perfection of opposing gridiron machines, whose clash on Saturday will go a long way toward determining the western conference championship.

Alonzo Stagg, veteran coach of the University of Chicago, has turned his mind to the solution of one of the most difficult problems of his long coaching career—the development of an attack that will give his team a victory over the University of Illinois eleven in the feature game of the week.

Coach Bob Zuppke, crafty mentor of the Illinois, is at the same time pitting his football wits against those of the Chicago coach. He must satisfy a homecoming crowd of 60,000 who are intent upon a victory over an ancient rival.

In common with other Big Ten football teams with games on their schedules for Saturday, Chicago and Illinois are putting in a hard week of work behind closed gates. Today opened the three-day period of concentrated training and scrimmaging.

Michigan and Iowa, both of whose teams came out of last Saturday's games in good shape, will put on an interesting match Saturday, second in importance to the Chicago-Illinois fray. Iowa gave a display of strength by easily defeating Ohio that evening at camp where championship aspirations are held high.

The Minnesota eleven is reported in good shape as it starts training for Northwestern. Gross, big tackle, is said to be not so seriously injured as first thought when he was carried from the field in the Wisconsin game and he may be back to strengthen the line. Northwestern was an easy victim for Illinois and is expected to succumb to the Gophers.

Notre Dame's strong team runs against the Purdue eleven on Saturday. The Boilermakers gave an exhibition against Chicago that lends interest to their match with the Notre Dame eleven, so far undefeated. Indiana and Hanover will engage in a contest that has little attraction in the Big Ten.

Wisconsin is resting this week after its scoreless game with Minnesota on last Saturday.

HIGH SCHOOL SQUAD LOOKS TO HARD BATTLE WITH THE WISCONSIN RAPIDS ELEVEN

GETTING back from Superior at 1:30 Sunday morning the high school football eleven took things easy on Monday, the activity being confined to a chalk talk by Coach Finley. The men are all in good condition with the exception of Mulien, who hurt his knee again in the Superior game. He will take it easy for a few days but will be in shape again for the game Saturday. Hermann suffered a slight cut over his right eye but it will not hinder him to any great extent.

Active scrimmage begins on Tuesday again in preparation for the game with Wisconsin Rapids which Coach Finley believes this to be the hardest game on his schedule, as indeed it might be as the Wisconsin Rapids team held La Crosse to a 20 to 0 score last year and this year have defeated the strong Stevens Point eleven.

In Saturday's game with Superior a mistake was made in giving Wisconsin one of the touchdowns that rightfully was made by Zoerb. Zoerb made this by a thirty yard run in which he eluded practically every man on the Superior eleven. The touchdowns were made by Weigert, who got three, Zoerb one, Rendler one and Cameron one. This made thirty-six and Rendler kicked three goals, making a total of thirty-nine.

That Coach Finley's eleven was fighting every minute of the game is evidenced by the prowess in which the scoring was divided. One touchdown was made in the first quarter, two in the second and third and one in the last. The team was up against a scrappy eleven that weighed almost as much as La Crosse and which was fighting every minute of the game.

In Saturday's game the team showed up as Coach Finley has been coaching them all season, to work together. There were no individual stars, every man doing his bit in the work and working as a team and not as separate individuals. It is this kind of play that builds teams of championship caliber and of this year's football team the fans of the city have a right to expect things.

Captain Cameron, in a statement Monday, said: "In the Superior game the men were fighting every minute, and we intend to keep this up all through our schedule. That the men are in splendid condition is shown by the fact that in the last two games

TURF ENTHUSIASTS TURNING ATTENTION TO RACE SATURDAY

Zev, International Champion, to Meet My Own at Latonia Track

NEW YORK.—Having witnessed the crowning of two thoroughbred champions—Zev in the International three-year-old race with Panrus and Sarazen in a match with his two-year-old rival Happy Thoughts—Eastern turf enthusiasts are turning their eyes toward Latonia, where Zev is slated to match sulkies in the $50,000 championship next Saturday with My Own, Rear Admiral Cury T. Grayson's sterling colt.

My Own was a rival of Zev's for selection as America's representative in the $100,000 contest with the English Derby winner at Belmont Park. They have never met, but, barring unforeseen developments in the race, the championship is expected to have an important if not decisive bearing on their rival claims to American three-year-old honors for the year.

CAPTAIN DUNN OF MARQUETTE NEARLY MOBBED BY STUDENTS

"WHY WORRY?"

In "Why Worry," Lloyd set out to make a light farce, with a little romance and plenty of action. The chances are that there are more "gag" laughs in this attraction than in any picture Lloyd ever made. There is little that is serious in the production. It is just what the comedian aimed for—a laugh picture. The story is laid in a romantic atmosphere with carefree seniors and dancing scortas, fighting bombers and pompous generals. Throughout this farce runs a little vein of satire—a jibe here and there at the bloodcurdling pictures of South American revolutions. It remains at the Majestic Theatre until Saturday.

CASINO TODAY

Alice Calhoun, who plays the leading role in "Pioneer Trails," a Vitaphone special production in which she will be seen at the Casino Theatre all week owes her life to the excellent marksmanship of Cullen Landis, who plays opposite her in the film. During the making of the photograph the company was on location at Chatsworth Mountains. Posing a bull in the taking of the film, Miss Calhoun strolled away from the scene and seated herself on a rock. At the movement aroused the snake. The reptile coiled to strike. Miss Calhoun bearing the menacing rattle turned, just as Landis fired twice. The first shot went through its body paralyzing it. "LORD AND MASTER" "My husband won't let me," was the amazing explanation offered by the once willful and impulsive Indiana Stillwater in refusing to join relatives and friends at a Sunday night party. The situation arises in "Her Lord and Master," a comedy drama, by Martha Morton, visualized as an Alice Joyce production. It will be shown at the Riviera Theater tonight and Tuesday.

"HER REPUTATION"

Thomas H. Ince has succumbed to the lure of "New Aw-leans" in his latest production "Her Reputation," a vividly colorful story of the South of the old days and the west of today. "Her Reputation" will be shown at the Riviera Theater, Wednesday. Beautiful senoritas, dashing caballeros, and showering rose leaves are the picturesque background for May McAvoy's appearance in the role of a spoiled Southern beauty. After some starting flood scenes, the locale of the story shifts in effective transition to the Pacific coast.

CALLS ON BRINDLEY

Head of U. S. Sea Soldiers Was
Pupil of the Judge Years
Ago in Rosebel

Major General George Barnett, head of the United States marine corps, called on County Judge John Brindley Tuesday morning at the courthouse and renewed a friendship of many years standing. General Barnett was reared and educated in the schools of Rosebel, Wis., and was in the class taught by Judge Brindley when he took the entrance examination for West Point.

The general, in full uniform, entered the courtroom and approached the bench.

"I don't suppose you remember me. So you judge?" he asked.

"You just bet I do," responded the judge. "You're George Barnett."

Whereat they shook hands. They hadn't seen each other since the rear of the World's Fair, 1893. The judge said after his call he had left. The general spent several hours talking over old times at Rosebel and also of some of the things that have happened in the years that have passed.

Francisco and is east on pleasure leave. He is visiting old friends and is detained here by his sister, Mr.

Arthur Nixon of Minneapolis. They left Tuesday for a visit in Boscomb and Lancaster.

EXAMINATION ONCE A YEAR URGED BY CHICAGO SURGEON

MILWAUKEE, Wis. — Physical examinations once a year with an education program to instruct the public in the facts and truths of scientific medicine, were advocated Tuesday by Dr. Franklin H. Martin, director general of the American College of Surgeons, Chicago, speaking before the American Hospital association convention here.

"We must be willing to recommend our wares in a reasonable way," Dr.

Sessions Monday night were presided over by Albert J. Ochs.

PARENTS SEEK A LOST BOY

Ivan Felton, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Piri Felton, 154 Sumner street, started for the Jefferson school, six blocks away, at 8 o'clock Monday morning. He failed to arrive at the school and has not been home since.

Today his parents, worried over the disappearance of the lad, asked the Tribune to help locate him. His phone number is 2664-Rd. The boy has black hair, blue eyes, black eyebrows, is five feet six inches tall, weighs 120 pounds and when he left home wore a grey sweater.

STUDENTS TO LIVE PERFECT LIVES IN SCIENTIFIC TESTS

Medical School Experiments
With Drugs Given Groups of Students

PHILADELPHIA. — Two groups of students of the Hahnemann Medical College and School of Science Monday began living a "perfect life" in scientific experiments which will last two months.

It is hoped the experiments will lead to the discovery of a drug of real therapeutic value from some common herb or basic acid hitherto unutilized. Also they aim to obtain data which will increase the therapeutic value of a recently discovered remedy.

The men will be under constant observation. For two months they must live, from a physician's standpoint, "a perfect life." Drugs will be administered to each subject and each will keep a diary in which he will write every hour the effects he feels from the drugs.

As a check, some of the subjects will be given blank pills, which will taste the same as pills containing the drugs.

Brigadier General Fries, of the chemical warfare service, declares that gas-giving does not cause tuberculosis.

SEVERE PENALTY FOR DRIVING CAR WHILE INTOXICATED

WINONA. — The most severe penalty ever administered in Wisconsin municipal court for an offense of that kind was meted out today when William B. McCombs, 29 years old, 228 West Second street, was sentenced by Judge J. J. Fitzpatrick to serve 30 days in the county jail for driving an automobile while intoxicated, following an accident when McCombs' light sedan carrying six persons, crashed into the railing of the Mississippi river bridge and overturned, slightly injuring three occupants.

McCombs, returning from a trip to the direction of Fountain City, drove his car into the bridge railing at the turn near the waterworks, continued his course, and then plowed into the railing again when he failed to negotiate the turn above the toll house.

ELECTRICAL EXPERT HAS SHOCKING EXPERIENCE
MOUNT CARMEL, Pa. — For five minutes Saturday afternoon 2,800 volts of electricity passed through the body of Richard Hebsacker, an electrical expert of Wilkes Barre, without seriously harming him. The current was so strong, however, that it completely melted a gold ring from his right hand.
